Where innovation, sustainability, and the future of construction integrate in Asia.

FutureBuild Asia 2026 (FBA 2026) is Asia's leading conference-led exhibition integrating developers, contractors, architects, engineers, manufacturers, and policymakers on one platform for smart, sustainable, and future-ready construction. Co-located with DOMOTEX South East and R+T South East Asia, the event unites global excellence in flooring, interiors, and smart building innovations.

ORGANIZERS

One of Europe's largest and most respected exhibition companies, with over 85 years of experience and expertise in sustainable building and construction events. Backed by a network of exhibitors, associations, and trade visitors, the company continues to reinforce its leadership in global industry platforms.

Deutsche Messe AG is a global leader in trade fair organization, managing over 150 exhibitions annually with a team of 650 experts. From its base in Germany, it connects industries, innovators, and global communities while also serving as a trusted host for international organizers.

GLOBUS Events (formerly VNU Exhibitions Asia) is a leading exhibition organizer with over 30 years of experience, a team of 150 experts, and more than 20 major shows annually totaling 1,000,000 sqm. Headquartered in Shanghai with operations across China and Bangkok, GLOBUS became part of Advent International's global portfolio in 2024.

Worldex G.E.C. is backed by nearly 40 years of experience and strong networks across government agencies, industry associations, and leading corporates. With a proven track record in delivering major Thai and international events, the company continues to reinforce its position in both the regional and global exhibition landscape.

STRATEGIC PARTNERS:

The Federation of Thai Industries unites leading manufacturers and suppliers to promote standards, innovation, sustainability, and competitiveness across Thailand's construction materials sector, strengthening industry development and export readiness.

The Council of Engineers Thailand (CEAT) serves as the national body overseeing engineering standards, professional licensing, and competency development, promoting ethical practice, public safety, and advancement of the engineering profession across Thailand.

The Thai Contractors Association (TCA) represents Thailand's construction contractors, promoting industry standards, professional development, and collaboration while supporting national infrastructure growth and strengthening the competitiveness of the construction sector.

Nation Group is one of Thailand's leading media organizations, delivering trusted news across television, print, and digital platforms while shaping public awareness and providing high-quality journalism for audiences nationwide.
